Our Mission

To empower employer by providing them with an ecosystem for better decision making & communication.

Business Overview

Ratify is an AI-enabled global platform that empowers the ecosystem of employers featuring employees verification and rating mechanism.

Our Company

Ratify's is an Indian business and employer-oriented online service that operates via websites and mobile apps

The platform is mainly used for professional services to empower employer eco system and network, and allows companies to verify and rate their employees. Ratify's allows employers to create profiles and "connect" to each other (employers) on global platform which may represent real-world professional relationships.

What We Do

Combine technology with the process to create an ecosystem for better decisions making & minimize the risk factor in Human Resource Management.

What We Offer

A range of services to empower & upgrade Human Resource Management by providing comprehensive authentic required information.

Employee Ice-Out

Know Your Employee

Efficiently find valuable & verified resources from our data pool as per your requirement with added features such as employee check, skills check etc. Check employee rating on pre defined skills parameters & attributes as per our research & past employer feedbacks for better decision making.

Employee Verification

Employment verification is the process of proving an employee's relationship with an employer and other related details. Employees often seek to verify employment on their own by providing their resume, paystubs, or signed agreements. However, many requests require a formal confirmation from current or past workplaces, so employees often pass requests on to their employers.

Rate Your Employee

Rate your current & past employees on pre defined parameters & attribute for creating a verified & cheating free ecosystem, which would help in establishing a risk free environment for both employes & employers.

Employee Ice-Out

Ice Out is an informal list of employees shared by their respective past employers who are eligible and qualified for the job but may not meet other criteria that would conflict with corporate culture or colleagues.
